

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release
February 21, 2012

FAMILY YMCA of PRINCE GEORGE ANNOUNCES 2012 BOARD of DIRECTORS

Prince George, BC: Today the Family YMCA of Prince George held its Annual General Meeting electing five new members to the Board of Directors.

Five, three-year term vacancies were filled by Marshall Smith, Tara Bogh, Andrea Martin, Rod Bellmann and Ron Epp.

“Our new Board members are an excellent complement to our current directors, says Mark Miller, CEO. They reflect the interests and values of our community and their experience will play a key role as the YMCA creates relevant policies and programs that support children and families in Prince George.”

Continuing their terms of office on the Board are: Cheryl Wallace, Fraser Deacon, Kim Hess, Mike Davis, Jason Blackman, Pat Flack, Peter Vogt, Selen Alpay, Rob Traxler and Roxanne Ricard. “2012 will be a strategic year for the Family YMCA, says Peter Vogt Chairperson. Creating new child care spaces, launching a teen leadership summer camp and expanded regional programs will keep staff and Board very busy.”

With a commitment to nurturing the potential of children, teens and young adults, promoting healthy living and fostering social responsibility, the YMCA ensures that every individual has access to the essentials needed to learn, grow and thrive.

Rooted in more than 1,000 communities around the country, the YMCA has the long-standing relationships and physical presence not just to promise, but to deliver, lasting personal and social change. Though the world may be unpredictable, one thing remains certain – the YMCA is, and always will be dedicated to building healthy, confident, secure and connected children and youth, families and communities.

For more information on the Family YMCA of Prince George, visit www.pgymca.com.

-30-

For more information please contact:
Karen Cameron – Manager of Resource Development & Communications
Karen.cameron@pgymca.com
250 562 9309 ext 211